A. THE CALL OF AN APOSTLE

The true nature of the apostolic ministry

THE CALL OF AN APOSTLE

- ▶ The word “Apostle” is translated from the Greek word “Apostolos” and it means “One sent forth”; “A sent one”.
- ▶ The Apostle has a unique sense of being sent or prepared for a special purpose. They have a definite assignment or a specific call.
- ▶ To stand in this office, one must have a personal experience with the Lord, that is very deep, real and beyond ordinary. Not just something handed down by tradition or appointment.

THE CALL OF AN APOSTLE

The Apostle is “a Christian leader, gifted, taught, commissioned, and sent by God with the authority to establish the foundational government of the church within an assigned sphere of ministry by hearing what the Spirit is saying to the churches and by setting things in order accordingly for the growth and maturity of the church and for the extension of the kingdom of God.”

- Peter C. Wagner.

THE CALL OF AN APOSTLE

- ▶ The signs of apostleship include extra ordinary character (1Tim 3:2), mighty deeds, Wisdom, Faith, Signs and Wonders. (2 Cor. 12:12)
- ▶ Not all apostles have the same call. There is diversity in the office of the Apostle. “For the same God who worked through Peter as the apostle to the Jews also worked through me as the apostle to the Gentiles.” (Gal 2:8, NLT).

THE CALL OF AN APOSTLE

- ▶ There are still people called to be Apostles today and many more that would be called before Jesus comes.

THE CALL OF AN APOSTLE

- ▶ The authenticity of the Apostolic call is not in the title or denominational position but in the fruits and impact it produces. (Acts 13:2, Gal 2:9)
